The Custer/Sitting Bull Trail   Stan Taylor   HSTA 29403-1   Room 110
June 21-22 Fri/Sat
The first day we will construct, with cardboard, a raised replica of the Rosebud Battlefield and chart, with pins, the movement taken by Lt. Co. George Custer, his troops and by Sitting Bull, the Sioux and the Cheyenne. The second day, we will travel parts of the soldiers' route to the Little Big Horn Battlefield. Add'l Travel/Lunch Fee $50

Management of Aggressive Behaviors/MOAB   Christine Williams-MHN   PSYX 29401-1   Room 107
June 27-28
MOAB Introduction with Controlling and Restraining Aggressive Behavior (8 hours). Participants will learn basic strategies to identify aggressive behaviors and avoid physical harm and hands-on strategies for controlling and restraining aggressive behavior. Techniques include basic escorting principles and restraints. In addition to the de-escalation skills presented in the MOAB 1-Day basic course, this optional second day of training includes hands-on strategies to control aggressive behavior an avoid physical harm based on modern techniques and principles. Hands-on skills include escorts, resistive escorts, and defensive tactics for guns, edged weapons and choke holds.

July 9-10
In this course, you will learn the most important topics of Adobe Photoshop CS6: basic tools to make adjustments, how to work with layers and filters, make selections, combine or manipulate photos, and place type in an image. Participants can bring some of their own photos on a flash drive.

The Battle of Powder River – 1876   Stan Taylor   HSTA 29404-1   Room 110
July 12-13 Fri/Sat
On 17 March 1876, 320 soldiers of the Second and Third Calvary attacked a Cheyenne encampment on the west side of the Powder River. Components of the engagement were success and failure. The first day we will construct, with cardboard, a raised replica of the Battle of Powder River Battlefield and chart, with pins, the movements of the combatants. Second, we will travel parts of the soldiers' route to the Battle of Powder River Battlefield. Add'l Travel/Lunch Fee $50

Deconstruct and Reassemble   Donna Faber   ARTZ 29412-1   Room 210
July 16-17
Participants will deconstruct 1 to 4 books and put them back together in a new form. We will use simple binding methods, monoprinting, collage, etc. in creations. Student: please bring several old hardbound books to be used in the class. Add'l. Art Fee $8

Digital Portfolios in the Classroom   Kim Smith   CAPP 19404-1   Room 109
July 22-23
Student digital portfolios are becoming increasingly popular in classrooms of all grade levels and content areas. In this course, we will explore reasons to implement student portfolios in your classroom, ways to document and archive student work, and provide feedback. We will utilize a variety of tools throughout the process in order to help everyone find the best fit for their needs.

Google Bootcamp   Kim Smith   CAPP 19405-1   Room 109
July 24-25
Google provides a wide variety of tools that are so beneficial to educators and their classrooms but sometimes all of the tools can be overwhelming! In this course we will explore many of Google's popular apps and how to customize them and use them to best support your needs. Some of the apps we will cover include (but are not limited to!): Gmail, Calendar, Drive, and Classroom. We will also explore some features of Google's Chrome browser that can help with productivity and efficiency. Let's get Googley!
